Parent and Guardian Access to Instructional Material

In accordance with federal law and Board policy, parents and legal guardians shall be permitted access to instructional material used as part of the educational curriculum for any student.

"Instructional Material" means any instructional content that is provided to a student, regardless of its format, including printed or representational materials, audio-visual materials, and materials in electronic or digital formats (such as materials accessible through the Internet). The term does not include formative or summative assessments and tests of any kind.

Upon request, the district shall permit parents and legal guardians to inspect any Instructional Material which has been utilized in the educational program of their student. The district shall grant reasonable access to Instructional Material within a reasonable period of time after a parental/legal guardian request is received.

Instructional Material developed by Board employees is subject to copyright and other intellectual property protections belonging to the Board.
